

Welcome to The Brookwood Community's 2026 TEACCH Training

We are excited to host you for three, enriching TEACCH days—June 16 through June 18—dedicated to deepening your understanding of autism and enhancing our ability to support neurodiverse learners through the TEACCH framework.

Leading Experts/Facilitators

- Michael Chapman (Director of Employment Services for the UNC TEACCH Autism Program)
- Jemma Grindstaff (Assistant Professor, UNC Department of Psychiatry and Clinical Director, Carolina Living and Learning Center)

Location

- Venue: The Brookwood Community, Yvonne and David Streit Enterprise & Education Building (When turn on Main Campus entrance, continue towards your right until you reach the first building on your right. You will pass the Chapel and Reynolds Building on your left).
- Address: 1752 FM 1489, Brookshire, TX
- Room: Hamill Conference Room
- Parking: Streit Building Parking Lot. (Please back into parking space and lock vehicle doors for Citizen safety).

Schedule

- Dates: June 16-18, 2026
- Daily Time: 9:00am – 4:00pm

What to Bring

- Laptop or tablet (optional)
- Notebook and pen

What's Provided

- Printed training manual
- Lunch

Additional Notes

- Comfortably, this is interactive, hands-on training
- Please silence mobile devices during sessions